

A
B I L L

TO

Make certain Provisions dealing with the Irish Vice-Royalty.

A.D. 1883.

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish the office of Lord Lieutenant of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland : Preamble.

1. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Abolition of by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and office of Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and Lord Lie-by the authority of the same, that from and after the first day of tenant.
January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four the office of Lieutenant General and Governor General of Ireland shall be abolished.

2. All powers and acts whatsoever which under any Act or Acts Powers of might, if this Act had not been passed, have been exercised or done Lord Lie-by the Lord Lieutenant shall, on and after the passing of this Act, utenant to be be exercised and done by such one of Her Majesty's Principal vested in Secretaries of State as may be appointed under this Act. Secretary of State.

3. And whereas it will become necessary to appoint an additional Appoint-Secretary of State, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to appoint ment of such additional Secretary of State, who is to be a member of the additional House of Commons, elected by an Irish constituency, and sitting Secretary of and voting as member for such constituency in the said House. State.

[Bill 37.]